Chamber Welcomes New Executive Director

The Board of Directors of the Malden Chamber of Commerce is pleased to welcome Jenna Coccimiglio as our new Executive Director. She comes to us with a wealth of experience in marketing, social media, event planning, and business development from Simon Property Group via Northshore, Liberty Tree and Pheasant Lane Malls. She also understands the challenges small businesses face as she started her own business at the age of 22.

"I'm very excited to be joining the Malden Chamber of Commerce and am looking forward to working with both our Chamber members and the Board of Directors to continue to grow membership while offering strong support to our existing members."
